PLAXEN & ADLER PA

WE STAND UP FOR THE INJURED AND ARE PREPARED TO FIGHT.

Deep expertise comes from focusing solely on representing plaintiffs in personal injury cases, and the attorneys at Plaxen & Adler, P.A., use that knowledge to pursue justice and fair compensation for their clients. For nearly 30 years the firm has handled automobile accidents, products and premises liability, workers' compensation, medical malpractice, Social Security disability claims and virtually every other kind of personal injury case.

Litigators at Plaxen & Adler obtained several landmark verdicts and won numerous cases by being aggressive, creative, zealous and well-prepared. Thanks to their success, the firm has grown to represent clients throughout the state of Maryland.

Bruce M. Plaxen, founding partner, is a leader in the plaintiffs' bar in Maryland and nationally. He served as president of the Maryland Association for Justice in 2001-2002 and was honored as Trial Lawyer of the Year in 2009.

Harry R. Adler is widely recognized as one of the top workers' compensation attorneys in Maryland. In addition, Adler has been honored for his philanthropic efforts and leadership in Howard County.

John J. Cord specializes in using technology to better represent his clients. He serves on the board of governors for the Maryland Association for Justice and is co-chair of its marketing and sponsorship committee and new lawyers' section.
